

WNSC-FM 88.9 ROCK HILL OFFERS NEW SERIES

ETV Radio in Rock Hill now offers new public radio series that have proven popular across the state and nation.

Tell Me More, hosted by Michel Martin, includes lively debates from different perspectives. M–Th at 9 a.m.

The Big Picture on the Radio features in-depth interviews with the state's newsmakers. Fri. at 9 a.m.

On Point confronts the stories at the center of the world today. Hosted by Tom Ashbrook. M–F at 10 a.m.

Your Day showcases the people, places and events of the state. M–Th at 12 noon.

Walter Edgar's Journal features conversations with the state's authors, historians and storytellers. Fri. at 12 noon, Sun. at 8 p.m.

Day to Day provides news with a twist. Madeleine Brand hosts. M–F at 1 p.m.

Living on Earth delves into the leading environmental issues. Sun. at 6 a.m.

To the Best of Our Knowledge. Jim Fleming hosts two hours of thought-provoking radio. Sun. at 10 a.m.

In addition to these series, WNSC-FM soothes your ears on Saturday nights with Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz at 8 p.m., followed by JazzSet, hosted by DeeDee Bridgewater, at 9 p.m.

ETV RADIO REPUBLICAN CONVENTION COVERAGE

ETV Radio's Your Day crew provides in-depth coverage with a local slant live from the Republican National Convention in St. Paul, held Sept. 1–4. During the convention, ETV Radio presents three one-hour programs on Sept. 2–4 at 9 a.m., which include national highlights as well as S.C.-based features and interviews. Dr. Bob Becker, director of the Strom Thurmond Institute on Government and Public Affairs, anchors live discussions at 9:30 a.m., and Donna London, director of the Jim Self Center on the Future, hosts coverage at Your Day's noon hour. Mark Quinn hosts The Big Picture on the Radio (Sept. 5 at 9 a.m.), a wrap-up of the convention including the impact of the outcome.

YOUR DAY

Your Day explores opportunities to eat out for a good cause, with a look at Euphoria, a food, wine and music benefit planned for Sept. 11–14 in Greenville. Also included is a look at Share Our Strength, a national organization dedicated to ending childhood hunger, and their Great American Dine-Out, Sept. 21–28, a week-long effort that rallies the nation's restaurant industry to donate a portion of their proceeds to ensure that no child in America goes hungry.

For live streaming, audio archives, and link to resources, visit yourday.clemson.edu. Mon.–Thurs. at 12 noon

scene

The Member's Magazine

September 2008

Carole King: Welcome to My Living Room
page 4

Republican National Convention Coverage with Mark Quinn
page 5

Sid the Science Kid
page 14